

IMPORTANT NOTICE

We understand that your domain name [redacted].com expires on March 15, 2002. We recommend you renew your domain name at least 30 days prior to its expiration to avoid any "Registrar Lock". Should your current registrar lock your domain name you will be unable to renew your domain name at what are likely to be the new lower prices offered by us here in Canada. Renew today to avoid being forced to pay higher prices. Failure to renew your Domain name by the expiration date may result in a loss of your online identity; which may make it difficult for your customers and friends to locate you on the Web. Should you lose your domain name it may be impossible for you to get it back.

Deregulation of Domain name registration now allows Canadians the choice of their registrar. This allows you to register or renew your domain name here in Canada at a lower price than most U.S. Registrars.

Domain name holders are not obligated to renew their domain name with their current registrar (e.g. Network Solutions) or with the Domain Registry of Canada. Review our prices and decide for yourself. You will choose the Domain Registry of Canada, a 100% Canadian Owned Registration Service Provider. An invoice will be provided with an easy means of payment should you decide to register or renew your existing domain name with the Domain Registry of Canada.
